THE BELMONT CHRONICIE

AND FARMERS, MECHANICS, AND MANUFACTURERS' ADVOCATE.

NEW SKORS VOL. 7. NO. 14.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, ONIO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1855.

W HOLE NO. 939

THE

AN OFADVER TRING.

POETRY.

or and beauty, and one of the places which Time has touched linders with the profoundest emo-Awe and odmiration.

on shall rebuild Jerusal- m? ed children bring Barbea far ends, and gather them rathbee sheltering wing? Chan's sceptre broken lies, from his kingly stem Messau shall arise at the wild as on her hills loal unfrighted lead, by the source of Kedrou's rills he dezert adder breed; where the love of Curier has made th mansion in the heart, builds in going that will not fade Her beavenly counterpart. "How long, O Currer! shall men obscure Thy holy chanty-How long the golless rights endure, Which they bestow on Turn?

Tuor, in whose soul of tenderness The FATHER's hiercy shone, Who came, the sons of men tobless By truth and love alone.

"The sups of eighteen hundred years Have seen Tuy reign expand. And Morning, on her pathway, hears Tay name in every land; But where 'Try sacred steps were sent The FATRER's will to bide, Thy garment yet are daily rent-Thy soul is crugified!" SONG.

THE REV. CHARLES RINGSLEY. he world goes up, and the world goes down, And the sunstine follows the rain; And yesterday's sneer, and yesterday's frown, Can never come over again,

Sweet wife, No, can never come over again,

For woman is warm, though man be cold, And the night will hallow the day; Till the heart, which at even was weary and old, Can rise in the morning gay,

To its work in the morning gay.

MISCELLANEOUS.

How Harry Fell in Love.

BY JAMES H. DANA.

with Henry Vernon. That is to say, they you bere the fatigues of yesterday." fall in love it he should lead the way. Fan- so little, looked behind the rosy lips, like Pil tell you what 'tis, Gineral, (when I call you to do before long; and them matters and and his Majesty the Emperor of the French, Representatives have prepared, and will soon ny Somers, the little witch was the only ox- pearls set in the richest ruby enamel. "Pa- you Gineral I sometimes cenamost feel as if whings that we don't send over any particular having likewise concluded with the Sablime report, a very important bill on the subject of ception. Merry, dancing, and pretty as a tigued! Why we had such a charming time I was writin to Gineral Jackson again;) I say, directions about, you and the cabinet must Porte, on the 12th of March, a treaty 5 which alien paupers and eriminals. Under the fairy, it was a question whether she had ever yesterday, that one couldn't get tired, even if Gineral, I'll tell you what 'tis, them three try to get along with and manage accordin' authorises them to direct their forces upon provision of this bill, it is said, no forcign thought of leve; if she had, she never talked one had been a hundred years old."

and he himself was a young lawyer of bril- he had sincerely thought it; and his counteliant talents, finished education and hand- nance showed the admiration for the bright some fortune. It was not known that his fa- happy creature before him. ther wished him to marry, and did not, as | Fanny blushed, but railled, and answered that some of these very young ladies, such is a wife cannot always be in full dress, and table was awiul. But that wasn't the worst fernal machine" prisoner, under sentence of the infirmity of human nature, did their very who naturally wishes to know how she will of it. When Mr. Sickles got there he couldn't death at Cincinnati, remains very much inbuly civil to call upon her. So the morning work."

IONT CHRONICLE after the party he sallied forth to make the f It soon became apparent that it would be les took his hat and marched out. There was The Treaty of Atlinuce with Austrin. complishment of the common object.

on of the editor. Tr Some were reading novels; some had a book who had a pretty hand was coquetishly knit- to him. ting a purse. Not one of them seemed to have anything serious to do. Most of them > tapping at the parlor entrance, he entered bowing. In the shaded light of the cool fra grant room, he could not, for a moment, see; but he noticed immediately that no one sussered his salutation; and directly he noticed that the apartment was empty. Just then, however, a fresh, liquin voice, as a light of the grant room, he could not for a moment, see; but the apartment was empty. Just then, however, a fresh, liquin voice, as a marry as a however, a fresh, liquin voice, as a marry as a however, a fresh, liquin voice, as an arrange of the American people—finding them much less disposed than he had imagined, to rest able the believe that they could be made to take it, and when the time comes he was ready to four propositions indicated below would off coat and roll up his sleeves and whip it instituted to four. (Cheers.)

>
> It was not until the young couple had set to four. (Cheers.)
>
> Upon the question of accepting Mr. Sikle's plant of feet Majesty the Queen of United Kings encourage the free expression of opinious which the believe that they could be made to take it, and when the time comes he was ready to four propositions indicated below would off coat and roll up his sleeves and whip it instituted. Viz.
>
> It was not until the young couple had set to four. (Cheers.)
>
> Upon the question of accepting Mr. Sikle's error Chaps of feeth Personne Chaps of feeth P however, a fresh, liquin voice, as merry as a bird's in June, was heard warbling in an ingestion, with her.
>
> Let a partment was empty. Just then, off on their wedding tour that Harry told his less than and civil rights of the new distribution of the Mingoon of Great Britain proclamation of the mingions and civil rights of the however, a fresh, liquin voice, as merry as a wife what had first made him fail in love report, Mr. Buchanan rose and said he objected to the term old fogy; he never did like perfect to the term old fogy; he never did like the term old fogy; he never did like the term old fogy; he never did like the term, and he thought it would do more the term old fogy; he never did like the term, and he thought it would do more the term old fogy; he never did like the term, and he thought it would do more the term old fogy; he never did like through another open door, he suddenly found a parent, could scarcely be less selfish to-himself in the kitchen, a large airy apart-ment, scrupulously clean, with Fanny at the ment, scrupulously clean, with Fanny at the error with your sex. new-a-days, to suppose to keep it in; so old fogy stands in the tophyte

It was a picture an artist would have lo- time. As Wadsworth writes:" ved to paint. Fanny's face was seen partly in profile, showing to perfection her long lashes, and bringing out in relief the pouting lips and round chin. The breeze blew her brown curls playfully about, and occasionally quite over her face, at which time she would throw them back with a pretty toss of her head. Her arms were bare; and rounder. whiter or more taper arms never were; they fairly put to blush with their rosy pearlness, the snowy flour powdered over them. As she moved with quick steps at her task, her ankle and delicate foot twinkled in and out .--For awhile she did not observe Harry. It was not till she turned to put down the dredging box, that she beheld him.

Most of our fair readers, we suppose, would have screamed, and perlians have run out at

All the girls in Flowerdale were in love stay. My call is on you, I came to see how better write a despatch to you and the Cabi- on and try to keep things snug and tight at guaranteeing those principalities against any Fanny laughed till her teeth, so white and lo go on.

"You'll never grow old,' said Harry, sur-

Harry's father was a Senator in Congress. prised into what would have been flattery, if man had made a lovematch in his youth, and sure bent almost double, and a cap on my had been acquainted for some years.

-Most of those, not directly interested in the The intended five minutes imperceptibly dreavering to win him. "Throws herself charm which surrounded Fanny forced him there to help eat that dinner. It's a melan- agreed that he has got to knock ender and his way continually," said one. "Did to do so whether or no. He went away, choly fact, but it's true. If he had had hall a back out, or smell thunder. r any body," said another, "see a gir! thinking to himself what a charming wife table full of cannibals we could all a stood it In haste, and some agitation, I remain any nousy, said another, see a gir. thinking to misself what a charming wife lave so barefacedly?" "She ought to Fanny would make, and how sweetly she and fit our way through; but Mr. Sickles your old triend, and Minister-Gineral at large. Imperial Court of Russia, having for its obt him, I'm sure," sneered another, for she would look in her neat, home dress, engaged couldn't stand Englishmen. He had too much ss tried, hard enough." Nevertheless, as in her domestic duties. Nor is Harry the Democratic blood in him for that. To mix sest chroniclers, we must record the fact only young bachelor who remembers that up Democrats and Englishmen at the same THE CASE OF ARRISON .- Arrison, the "in-child. It was only a month since she had "as a man to understand his business. I that a stumper! No wonder Mr. Sickles's gins to exhibit in his features a hopelessness left school and returned home again; and the don't wish a wife of mine, indeed, to be maid Democratic bood biled over. But that wasn't of escape from the sentence which hangs first time she joined in the village social cir- of all work; but I should like to have her ca- the worst of it. When they come to give ever him. Almost daily he is visited in his cle was at a pic-nic. Here her blooming pable of overseeing her servants; and do- the toasts they toasted the Queen! The cell by a young lady, to whom, it is intimated. complexion, graceful figure and ringing laugh mestics discover very soon whether their rest of the folks stood up to drink the toast, he is betrothed. Their conversation, alhad been the theme of admiration by all the mistress is competent, and obey, or disregard But Mr. Sickles gift his teeth and sot down though of a confidential character, is had in beaux, the envy of the belles. Harry had her accordingly. Ah! if I had such a dear as hard as a thousand of brick; and he felt so the presence of jailor McLeun. been her partner in a dance or two, and, in little wife, how I'd coar her to go into the disgusted he couldn't cat another mouthful. common with many others, felt it would be kitchen occasionally, that I might see her at And when the music, to increase the insult,

THE SIDE OF MAIN ST

West of Marketta Street

It soon became apparent that it would be les took his hat and marched out. There was a file Treaty of Alliance with Austria of Sull on the proud of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

West of Marketta Street

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Sull on the proud of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Sull on the proud of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance with Austria of Street ought to be proud on the village Lirk.

The following is the treaty of alliance be
Arc 7. The present treaty shall be exchanged by tween Her Majesty the Queen of Great Brit.

The following is the treaty of alliance be
Arc 7. The present treaty shall be exchanged by tween Her Majesty the Queen of Great Brit.

The following is the treaty of alliance be Arc 7. The present treaty shall be exchanged by tween Her Majesty the Que affected, like Isabel, to be quite languid, and out being half as capable of sincere love as mother. Mr. Sickles, who was the head of the common object which they have in view One reason for this step is, that his eye sight wisher, in the present conjunctore, and incontributions to the world of letcince which have resulted from many stravels in the Holy Land, places which Time has touched places which the disconnent of the American people all seemed to be tied to the Queen's proper time time to the proper has been personally indentined would be menaced in such as to which the hard to make any impression upon him.

You are, in consequence, M. le Baron, and to their respective positions, and to are with the respective positions, and to are with the time of the populations of the paper, has been injurious to the paper, has been injurious to the paper, has been i taiked as if the fatigues of the day before had Fanny, had made up her mind to have Harry, that committee, reported that John Bull was shall be entirely attained; and acknowledge has been injuriously affected by his labora; as depends upon him, to preserve med, but finding that his knocking was not he said, was playing the fine lady; and that hurt finan good in the report, and he moved heard, and recognizing, as he thought, Fan- while, as I well knew, their mothers were that it be struck out. Mr. Sanders said no: ny's voice, finally made bold to go in search often slaving in the kitchen. I reasoned that that was the cream of the Imperial and Mil- He will still contribute, however, to the Citi- vor by our treaties with the Porte. of the singer. Passing down the hall, and the daughter who would neglect her duty to jected to its being struck out. It was then itary Order of Maria Theresa, a member of zen, mainly on literary topics, and always unend opposite to him, standing before a dough that it is debasing to engage in domestic dutrough, kneeding flour, and carolling like a ties. To a man of sense, dearest, a woman I then called for the report on France.

Majesty.

Majesty.

Majesty.

Majesty.

It is Majesty, the Emperor of Austria, the like Work Dally Times.

Output from the beginning.

A Free navigation of the Danube, which carolling like a lies. To a man of sense, dearest, a woman like to the desired of the desired o never looks more attractive than at such a

"Her modest motions, light and free, And steps of virgin liberty; A countenance in which there meet Sweet records, promises as aweet; A creature not too bright and good For human nature's daily food: For transient sorrows, simple wiles, sensibility, he put his arm around Fanny's workin,' but keep stirren' round, and tryin' to get up a muss somehow as soon as possibility, he put his arm around Fanny's waist, and drew her towards him; and the to get up a muss somehow as soon as possible.

Who, after having communicated to each other their full powers, found in good and due other their full powers, found in good and due other their full powers, found in good and due other their full powers, found in good and due other their full powers, found in good and due other their full powers, found in good and due other their full powers, fund in good and due other full powers, fun trim figure showed all its grace; and her neat devoted affection, rested her head on his bosom and shed happy tears. And so we leave them.

> Letter from M. jor Downing. Letter of Instruction to President Pierce and Cabine be kind enough to wait a minute, I will call and Mr. Sanders source on tother side, and the butter MUST come. (Cheers.) 'No, no,' said Harry, charmed by such frank get a pretty good pull out of the a sometimes. here. We can't do much jest yet, but you Principalities against any return of the Rus-nothing of his intentions, as Mr. F. visited maintained with firmness and perseverance, innocence, and uncermoniously taking a well- We have got things so far ahead here that may depend on it there is great times ahead. sian forces: the Austrian troops shall for this Cuba to pass the winter for the benefit of his such as was proclaimed at the commencescrubbed chair, "I've only a few minutes to Mr. Sickles and Mr. Sanders thinks I had You and Mr. Marcy, and the rest, must hold purpose occupy the position necessary for health.

S's (Sickles, Sanders, and Souley) are the to your best discretion. But you better be every part of the Ottoman Empire, the above passenger shall hereafter be admitted into a the Russian Minister at Berlin, about a three smartest chaps that ever growed in gettin' your forces ready as fast as possible, mentioned occupation shall not interfere port of the United States unless he shall have menth ago, has made in appearance, in North America. They make Europe stan for we may call for 'em at any moment. You with the free movement of the Anglo French the certificate of the American Consul of the which the Russian Cabinet signifies its conround, and no mistake. Mr. Souley holds better enlist the old Downingville company, or Ottoman troops upon these same territo- place from which he comes, that he has not sent to take part in negatiations for peace upold Spain between his thumb and finger, and and get cousin Suggest Joel to take com- ics against the military force or the territo- one year previous to his departure, been an on the basis of the four points, modified to Queen and all; Mr. Sanders lays down the right sert of uniform, and get my friend Cush- enna between the plenipotentiaries of Aus- has not, for four years previously, been con- burgh. About ten days later, and after the ther wished him to marry, and did not, as is often the case, insist on the selecting an his French Republic atter Napoleon goes out; will be ready at a moment's warning to plenipotentiary, and which shall be charged captain shall bring such persons without the and as for old John Bull, I'll be kicked if I "march,' and carry Democracy all over En- with examining and regulating every question required certificates, he shall be hable to fine Government was disposed to accept the four

Mr. Sickles snubbed Peabody, the great merthe next steamer for Sargeant Joel and his different armies across their territory.

Chant-banker about the 4th of July dinner.— company to come on. The French Emperor Art. 3. In case hostilities should break

A Cure for Hard Times.—Sixty of the trailing support with firmness and perseve-Cortain it is that Harry visited Isabel very If the elegant refinement about Isabe, had hardly believe me, Gineral, when I say it, but time. But Napoleon has been foolish enough mined by subsequent arrangements.

Those who envised her accused her of tempted Harry to fall in love, the household it's a fact, Mr. Posbody had Englishmen to put his foot in it, and now we have all Art. 4 In the case contemplated by the hardly believe his own eyes; for there was a disposed, and is now under the special care prettiest to out-manoeuvre Isabel, and get Harry for themselves.

'A wife ought as much to know how to Harry had not seen Fanny since she was manage her own house," he said to himself, same room with Gineral Washington! Wasn't Arrison has grown pale and haggard, and because a honelessness havelessness.

af that sumptuous parlor, with elegant pic- too frank, and good for this, and only hesita- before, we haint brought matters quite to a $1.50 tures on the wall, boquets of flowers all about, ted long enough to be certain of the state of head yet. We managed better than your editor, and an atmosphere of exquisite refinement her own heart, when she made Harry happy around. Never had Harry felt so much tempted to be in love. He stayed nearly an hour, when he had intended to step only a fact could not be. Though always merry, the members chose me President of the Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and his Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and his Majesty the Emperor of the French, being anisated better than your (Translated.)

We didn't step to male so many long-winded speeches, but talked right to the pint, and got through in a few days.

The members chose me President of the Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and his Majesty the Emperor of the French, being anisated better than your (Translated.)

We manninged better than your (Translated.)

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and his Majesty the Emperor of the French, being anisated before P. Staid before P. The members chose me President of the Stayed heart of the S to the educer most be paid to ped in. From I sabel's he went to several read and thought a great deal, especially for of 'em, and the honor belong a to me; so I present war at the earliest possible moment. | Laid before other houses. Everywhere he found the one so young. Her heart ran over with 'unwritten poetry. Had Harry sought, for a for the honor of course, and then proceeded solid bases, affording to the whole of Europe | Laid before Parliament in Peri XI of Eastletime, he could not have found a wife so to business. I beginned by callin for the every guarantee against the return of the term Papers. of pretty poetry open before them, and one companionable, and so suited in every way reports of the committees that had the busi- complications which have so unhappily dis-

it came out! The haughty Isabel, who, with- out of respect to her being our venerable old that the complete union of their efforts until drawn from the Citizen, and from public life. possible, the Emperor, our august master, has

As he recited these lines, with exquisits to wait a fittle longer, we shouldn't stop to wait a fittle longer, we shouldn't stop at Apostone Majesty, Grand Officer of the tensibility, he put his arm around Fanny's workin,' but keep stirren' round, and tryin' linearist Order of the Legion of Honor, &c.

the opposite docr. She blushed a little, as was natural, but having no false shame, she saw no reason to be frightened merely besaw no reason to be frightened merely because a handsome young man had caught her baint made out to fetch matters to a head top of the buttermilk, and he thought for a eral interests of Europe, they engage mutual- in the hold so cruelly at work. So she courtesied prettily, laughed yet; but I guess we are in a pretty fair way while the bisness was done; but he looked by and reciprocally not to enter into an arone of her gayest laughs, and said, holding for it. Our team's got grit enough and, by into the charn again, to his amazement the range ment with the Imperial Court of Rusjingo, they'll haul the load they hitch on to, witchcraft of despotism had got the upper sia without having first deliberated thereupon daily and sele allowance of food." "I can't shake hands with you, Mr. Ver- or somethin's got to give way, Mr. Buchan- hand, and the butter was all meltin' back in common. Dr. you see. Mamma was kind enough to an and Mr. Mason isn't quite spry enough; again into the buttermilk. But says he, as Art 2. His Majesty the Emperor of Auslet me go to the pic-nic yesterday, and put they are a little on the old fogy fashion, and true as Jackson flogged the British at N. tria having, in virtue of the treaty concluded mandis, and that he has buildy avowed to the the States of the Confederation will reject off some of my work; and so Pm doing don- not always ready to come up to the scratch; Orleans, I'll have a red hot horse-shoe be. on the 14th of June last with the Sublime authorities that his object in visiting Baracos such pretensions, from whatever side they ble work to-day to make up for it. If you'll but with Mr. Sickies spurrin up on one side, fore long to put into that churn, and then

Mr. Souley drivin up behind, we make out to fo y u see Gineral, how things is over net tolkeme and give some instructions how home till we get our Government under way attack. Her Majesty the Queen of the Uniover here, and we'll out out some work for ted Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, whisks her about jest as he's a mind to, mand of it. Get Mr. Marcy to plan out the ry of Russia. There shall be formed at Vi-

MAJOR JACK DOWNING.

Opportunity is rare, and a wise man will struck up "God save the Queen," Mr. Sick- never let it go by him. - BAYARD TAYLOR.

1854) (Translated.)

present war at the earliest possible moment | +Leid before Parliament in Part 1X what a talk the engagement made when I catled for the report on England first ing could be more conducive to that result.

THE CITIZEN.—John Mitchel has with-

Mr. Banders made a long report; but the Sieur Charles, Count De Boul Schauenstein. substance was that the Democratic crop in this Chamberlain and Privy Councillor, Min-any proposition or overture on the part of the We would recommend ladies of Cincinnati condition to require that no such armaments of the United Kingdon of Great Britain and lions of dollars. Let there be a referan. Ireland, His Majesty the Emperor of the French, will deliberate without delay upon effectual means for obtaining the object o' their alliance.

Done at Vienza, the 2nd of December in the year of our Lord 1854.

WESTMORELAND (L. S.) EUOL SCHUDNSTEIN (L. S.) BOURRORNSY (L S)

"Laid before Parliament in Part VIII of France wasn't quite ripe enough to harvest, ister for Foreign Affairs and of the Imperial Sexon Lagorze, one of the men arrested on upon the supposition that the Western Pow-Napoleon had filled the people's heads so House, Grand Cross of the Imperial Order board an American schooner at Beracon, and ere will faithfully juille the engagement which full of the Eastern war at d glory that they of Leopold, Knight of the Order of the Iron committed to prison at Hevans, has made a they have contracted in the face of Europe. couldn't think of nothin' else. But said Mr.

Sanders, "there's a good time comia,' bays;
wait a little longer." (Cheers.)

Mr. Sanders, report was ununimously accepted, with a proviso that, while we had

Mr. Souley rose, with fire in his eye, and honey and thunder on his tongue. He re Art. 1. The High Contracting Parties reme great pain, and I was not permitted to cherish the hope that the Confederation, uniported that if there was any such thing as getting sunbeams out it a concentration, the could do it; and he had come pesky near kin of the present year, and in the notes exchan Thence I was taken in chains to the castle of the question, will turn its unanimity to acdlin' the flame of Democracy from one end of ged on the 5th of August last; and as they St. Jago de Cuba, where, after a long contine- cannt to throw its balance jute the scales of Porte, caused the Principalities of Moldavia was to create a revolution. Having falled, may come, as contrary to the sentiments of and Wallachia to be occupied by his troops, he says, he is now willing to suffer the penal- loyalty which enimates them, as also to the he engages to defend the frontier of the said ty of his fellow-prisoner, he also stated, knew true interests of Cermany. A neutrality

Committee on Commerce in the House of good wishes addressed in its name.

avent, thought that Isabel Fortescue would grew into ten, and the ten into half an hour. Capital, wasn't it? Ye see, Mr. Peabody gin has got frightened or mad about matters, I out between Austria and Russia, Her Majes- most fashionable ludies in New-York have a 4th of July dinner. He's always doing sich don't know which, and has snubbed Mr. ty the Queen of the United Kingdom of formed a society for the promotion of American Security for the Promotion Security for the Promoti believed the village. Having received her education at a fashionable seminary, there was scarcely an accomplishment of which and place alike. At last the entrance of the United Kingdom of formed a society for the promotion of American concluding the additional can industry, by encouraging domestic manufactures. The members pledged themselves or other; for they say he's got money enough land. He turned him right out of doors of the Was scarcely an accomplishment of which and place alike. At last the entrance of the United Kingdom of formed a society for the promotion of American concluding the additional can industry, by encouraging domestic manufactures. The members pledged themselves or other; for they say he's got money enough land. He turned him right out of doors of the United Kingdom of formed a society for the promotion of American concluding the additional pleasantly chattering the while, both she and things, or giving money away for somethin Souley, and forbid his settin a foot on his Great Britain and Ireland, His Majesty the can industry, by encouraging domestic manufactures. The members pledged themselves or other; for they say he's got money enough land. He turned him right out of doors of the treaty with Austria, and His Majesty the Emperor of the Souley, and forbid his settin a foot on his Great Britain and Ireland, His Majesty the can industry, by encouraging domestic manufactures. The members pledged themselves or other; for they say he's got money away for somethin Souley, and forbid his settin a foot on his can industry, by encouraging domestic manufactures. The members pledged themselves are the control of the Chington and Ireland, His Majesty the can industry, by encouraging domestic manufactures. The members pledged themselves are the chings of the Chington and Ireland, His Majesty the Chington and Irela could not boast. Besides, the family of Mrs. Somers interrupted the tete-a-tete. Sickles to come and jine the rist of us and ness somewhere else. This was when Mr. Verson and Fortescue had been the leading Fanny was a little embarrassed, when she have a good set down. But ye see Mr. Pea- Souley was on his way home to Spain from in this the present war, and will for that friend, Charles Stetson, Esq., of he Astor have a good set down. But ye see Mr. Pea- Souley was on his way home to Spain from in this the present war, and will for that friend, Charles Stetson, Esq., of he Astor have a good set down. But ye see Mr. Pea- body didn't know how much patriotism and our Congress which we held at Oastend; for purpose employ, according to the require- House, N. Y., writes to us under date of the he gossips said that the union of the two lone; but the easy matter-of-course manner real Democratic grit there was stowed tway we was very careful not to hold it in France, ments of the war, military and naval forces, the there was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description, and destination where there was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description, and destination where there was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description, and destination where there was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description, and destination where there was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description, and destination where there was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description, and destination where was a large soire; given here; the idea on't; nor Spain, nor England, so as not to stir up number, description almost nurivalled. be worn on the occasion, and the effect was demolition of Schaetopol, for, till that has Art. 4 In the case contemplated by the delightful. American silks could not be been accomplished, nothing has been done ject the cessation of host littles, without hav- solve to wear only American manufactured land shores of the Turkish dominions. . . ing come to an understanding thereupon be- goods; begin the New Year with this deter- For these reasons, we believe that war on a minution, make domestic fabrics fashionable, more extended scale, and not peace, will arise Art. 5. In case the reestablishment of and we shall soon have good times. We out of the present conjuncture of affairs. eneral peace, upon the bas a indicated in purchase twenty millions of dollars worth of Article I, should not be assured in the course of the present year, Her Mijesty the Queen I Cin. Gazette.

Misletoe springs from the dying branch; and the introduction of Russia into this protecte-Art. 6. Great Britain, Austria and France God be praised, something green, something rate there are many objections. In the first will jointly communicate the present treaty rair to the sight, and grateful to the heart, place, Russia is a neighbor, and late an eneto the Court of Prussia, and will with satis-

The Terms on which Ressin is Willing to Make Peace.

The following is a translation of a dispatch addressed by Count de Ness-Irode to Baron de Budberg, the Russian embassador at Ber-

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6. (Oct. 25.) 1853. Monsteur LE BARON: The information which we receive from all sides proves to us that, at the present moment, the German Governments are nearly all occupied with one and the same fear-that of beholding, on the Eastern question, a schism break out betueen the two great German Powers, which might place in danger the tranquility of the common country, and even the existence of the German Confederation.

Faithful to the pulley he has followed since the origin of this deplorable complication, and desirous of circumscribing the disastrons consequences within the narrowest limits daily and sele allowance of food."

or Russia, to bring ferward new conditions,

He further states that he was betrayed by incompatible ir substance and in form with ment of the struggle, is what the Emperor thinks he may injustice demand in return for ALIEN PAUPERS AND CRIMINALS .- Tie the deference with which he received the

[COMMENT OF THE LONDON TIMES.]

A note, ad iressed by Count Nesselrade to had too early lost. "Let your heart choose, my son," he said, "marriage, without true allow on," he said, "marriage, without these modifications. In both think the critter dares to stir an inch while rup, and Alraky, and Ameraky.

Postscriv—I don't know but the mass in think the critter dares to stir an inch while rup, and Alraky, and Ameraky.

Postscriv—I don't know but the mass in think the critter dares to stir an inch while rup, and Alraky, and Ameraky.

Postscriv—I don't know but the said principalities in which the said principalities are now placed, or to the free passage of the are now placed, or to the free passage of the are now placed, or to the free passage of the are now placed, or to the free passage of the are now placed.

In both think the critter dares to stir an inch while rup, and Alraky, and Ameraky.

Postscriv—I don't know but the subject to forfeiture.

Postscriv—I don't know but the subject to forfeiture.

I suppose you've seen then letters—how is begun, and we may have to send over by are now placed, or to the free passage of the are now placed.

I suppose you've seen then letters—how is begun, and we may have to send over by are now placed.

I suppose you've seen then letters—how is begun, and we may have to send over by are now placed.

preceding article, the high contracting par-found, but calicoes and muslin de lanes were for the permanent set lement of these mo-mentous questions; and we must also be in a

[From the Standard.]

NESSELRODE AND THE "FOUR POWERS." Nesselrode falls back upon the four points, something like them. First, a joint protectorate of the Christian subjects of the OF Moss will grow upon grave stones, the Porte by the Five powers, viz: Russia, Ausivy will cling to the mouldering pile; the tria, Prussia, France, and England. Now, to faction receive its accession thereto, in case seems and cracks of the desolate temple of tween the subject of a State and an alieng it should promise its co-operation for the active human heart.